Over the past 40 years since we first opened our doors, a lot has changed at Plazit Polygal. From one small company with a modest manufacturing site, we’ve expanded into a global Group with six manufacturing facilities worldwide, serving multiple industries – from architecture and interior design to DIY and fabrication.

Headquartered in Israel, with subsidiaries in North America, South America, Europe and Asia, and distributors located in 60 countries around the globe, we have become one of the world’s leading plastic sheet manufacturers, proudly providing our customers with the high quality, reliable service and innovation they have come to expect from us.

Now, we are ready to take the next step.
